

Rev It Up Reading Announces Launch of New, Updated Website

Visitors will find an enhanced user experience at www.RevItUpReading.com

Wallingford, CT — October 31, 2014 — Rev It Up Reading, a speed reading training company created by America's #1 Speed Reading Expert, Abby Marks Beale, has officially launched its new and updated website. A fresh design and improved navigation for information on products and services offers visitors to www.RevItUpReading.com a better user experience.

"We are thrilled to launch our new and improved website," said Marks Beale. "The development and creation of the new content and navigation has been in the works for quite some time. We feel strongly that visitors, to the Rev It Up Reading site will have a very informative experience."

In addition to easier navigation, the new website was designed to meet the requirements of our increasingly digital customer base. The site can be viewed on smartphones, tablets, and other mobile devices without loss of functionality. Furthermore, this new design will be especially useful for the large number of international visitors that frequent the site as they can find all the information they need more easily than before. Other features of the new website include:

- An updated storefront allowing simpler access for purchasing the online course, books and digital options.
- The ability to search through articles and blog posts by category.
- Clear descriptions and demos of the tools offered to improve reading speed, including free resources.

Rev It Up Reading's new website will be updated regularly with news of product launches, special discount offers, blog content and events including live webinars and workshops. Visitors are encouraged to explore the website and learn more about how to get up to speed with what they read at www.RevItUpReading.com.
