

National Association of Distinguished Professionals Selects Abby Marks Beale
as a Distinguished Professional in Her Fields

Abby Marks Beale is featured in the latest edition of the NADP Women of Distinction Magazine

Wallingford, Conn. — September 2, 2015 — Abby Marks Beale, Creator of the Rev It Up Reading Online Reading Course and Founder of Homeopathy Healings, has been recognized as a Distinguished Professional in her fields through the National Association of Distinguished Professionals. Abby Marks Beale is featured in the latest edition of the NADP Women of Distinction Magazine.

Abby is a Nationally Certified Classical Homeopath who recently founded Homeopathy Healings in East Longmeadow, Mass. She treats a variety of health issues through homeopathy, a safe and effective system of natural healthcare that addresses the health of the whole person. She takes a holistic approach using natural remedies to help her patients achieve higher levels of mental, emotional and physical health.

Abby is also the owner of Rev It Up Reading, an online speed reading company, and creator of the Rev It Up Reading Online Reading Course. She is a Speed Reading Expert and consummate educator who enjoys teaching busy students and professionals how to work and read smarter, faster and just plain better. She has authored several books including 10 Days to Faster Reading, The Complete Idiot's Guide to Speed Reading and Success Skills: Strategies for Study and Lifelong Learning.

"I am honored to be featured in the Women of Distinction Magazine," said Abby. "It is a unique opportunity that allows me to share my two passions – homeopathy and speed reading – both which help people achieve their best in very different ways."

Abby holds a BA in Spanish from Boston University and an MS in Adult Education from Southern Connecticut State University. She is currently the Board President of the Wallingford Public Library and Board Member of the National Center for Homeopathy. She lives in Wallingford, Conn. with her husband and two sons.
